

Tri-Valley CAREs
2008 Board of Directors and Officers

Martha Priebat, President, member of Tri-Valley CAREs since 1984; MS in Organic Chemistry, MA in Clinical Psychology; practicing psychotherapist, former data analyst at the Dept. of Energy's Sandia National Laboratory; serves as Tri-Valley CAREs' representative on the Alameda County Health Dept.'s task force on plutonium-contaminated sludge.

Pleasanton, CA

Janis Kate Turner, Treasurer, member of Tri-Valley CAREs since 1985; BA in Education; public school teacher in Livermore for more than 30 years; retired from full-time teaching in 2003; substitute teaches in Livermore; represents Tri-Valley CAREs on the Dept. of Energy/Environmental Protection Agency Community Work Group on the Superfund cleanup of contaminated soil and groundwater at Livermore Lab.

Livermore, CA

Mary Perner, Secretary, member of Tri-Valley CAREs since 2003; Tri-Valley CAREs' community organizer 2005-2007; presently co-director and tutor at Twin Valley Learning Center; participates in Tri-Valley CAREs' support group for Livermore Lab workers made ill by on the job exposures; serves as Tri-Valley CAREs' liaison to the Tri-Valley Democratic Club.

Livermore, CA

Ena Aguirre, member of Tri-Valley CAREs since 2000; BA in Spanish, French, Business; retired High School teacher in San Francisco Unified School District; Tri-Valley CAREs' liaison to Tracy Regional Alliance for a Quality Environment and the Bayview-Hunters Point Project Area Committee.

Stockton, CA

Marylia Kelley, member of Tri-Valley CAREs since 1983; BA in Humanities, Journalism; Executive Director, Tri-Valley CAREs.

Livermore, CA

Beverly King, member of Tri-Valley CAREs since 2002; former school teacher in Livermore, Tracy and Stockton; recently served as Tri-Valley CAREs liaison to the Livermore City Council, senior centers and civic organizations.

Livermore, CA

Don King, member of Tri-Valley CAREs since 1983; BA in Social Science, MA in Public Administration, MA in Urban Planning; retired city planner and former compensation analyst at the Dept. of Energy's Lawrence Livermore National Laboratory; Tri-Valley CAREs' liaison to local religious community.

Livermore, CA

Francis Macy, member of Tri-Valley CAREs since 1990; BA, MA in Soviet Russian Studies; Director, Center for Safe Energy; specialist in radioactive waste and alternative energy; represented Tri-Valley CAREs on the Resolve MTA Fund advisory board.
Berkeley, CA

Inga Olson, member since 1995; served as Program Director from 2000-2005; 1999 Jesse R. Unruh Fellow, working for California State Assembly Speaker pro Tem, Fred Keeley; BA in English; MA in Human Resources and Organizational Development; Legislative Analyst for the State of California; represents Tri-Valley CAREs in Central Valley peace and justice coalitions.
Sacramento, CA

Garrett Wright, member of Tri-Valley CAREs since 2005; JD from the University of California, Berkeley (Boalt Hall); BA in Theatre; legal intern at Tri-Valley CAREs summer 2005; interested in environmental and economic justice, military law, and peace issues.
New York, NY

Scott Yundt, member of Tri-Valley CAREs since 2001; BA in Environmental Studies, JD University of San Francisco; served as legal intern at Tri-Valley CAREs; Attorney at Murray and Howard; serves as Tri-Valley CAREs' advisor on legal matters.
Oakland, CA