

Tri-Valley CAREs

Communities Against a Radioactive Environment

Workshop: How to Write Letters to the Editor - and to Elected Officials

Our Voice is Our Power! Come Learn How to Use YOURS Most Effectively to Influence Public Policy

Spanish Translation Provided

Purpose: Develop hands-on skills in writing letters to influence policy. Workshop handouts will focus “how to” tips. We will also have handouts on environmental threats stemming from pollution at Site 300 in Tracy.

Workshop Facilitators: Raiza Marciscano-Bettis, Bilingual Community Organizer, and Valeria Salamanca, Board Vice President for Tri-Valley CAREs.

Background: This workshop will explore ways to strengthen community participation in decisions at Site 300. Learn how to write effective letters - and brainstorm new strategies for change.

Additional Information: Email Raiza at raiza@trivalleycares.org. Call us at 925.443.7148 or visit us online at www.trivalleycares.org.

RSVP appreciated to help us plan food and materials, but not required

Join us for Pizza

Sunday, Dec. 8, 2019

11 am - 12 Noon

at our Tracy Office

1005 E. Pescadero Ave

Lunch & Workshop

Materials are FREE